Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Lehigh Alumni Bulletin, Vol. 4 We are not worthy of the greater opportunities that have been ours if we don t measure up to the responsibilities such opportunities entail. Only when we can truthfully say we have left no stone unturned in our efforts to be of service, when we have made every sacrifice and have seen to it that every organ over which we have any control is functioning in a way to give the maximum result, can we say we are doing our part. Our share does not depend on what another does or can do. It is measured only by our own possibilities. This Association of yours is trying to help the University in securing and training young men for our Government service. Lehigh has furnished 800 trained men to the Army and Navy and, God helping us, we will keep our complement full. We are working with the University authorities to help when and where we can in their magnificent efforts to utilize in war service the teaching staff, equipment, buildings and grounds of the University. We are securing Lehigh men for Government departments, the Y. M. C. A. and private enterprises doing Government work. We are keeping track of our boys in the Army and Navy, compiling their records, offering to aid them, preparing to stand back of them during this war and to find them positions when they come out of it. Don t you suppose it means a lot to them to know that in spite of all the demands the war is making on every mans time and money, twice as many Lehigh men are in the...
