Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Conversation Between Two Laymen on the Subject and Mode of Christian Baptism and Church Communion Dear Brother: I have examined with much interest and profit, your Manuel on Baptism and Communion, and am convinced in my own mind, that it is destined to do much good. Although there has been much written, and many volumes are now before the public on the subject, yet there is still, upon this most expressive and important ordinance, a vast amount of ignorance in the Christian church. It is therefore clearly the duty of the Baptists, in the exercise of Christian charity, to give their erring brethren line upon line, and precept upon precept, and exhort them to make straight paths for their feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way. Your references to classic usage, and quotations from the Fathers, and from modern Pedobaptists, triumphantly answer all objections, and completely settles the fact, that believers are the only subjects, and immersion the only mode of gospel baptism. Your reasoning upon the subject from the usus loquendi of the terms employed in the ordinance of baptism, is irrefragable. - Infant sprinkling is most unquestionably the very foundation and pillar of Popery, designed to be the great link to connect church and state, in order to form a national religion, and so to unite the kingdom of light with the kingdom of darkness, as to form a misty twilight, in the dimness of which, things doubtful and anti-scriptural should appear to be confirmation strong as proofs of holy writ. I believe it must and will appear to every candid reader of your excellent Manuel, that...
