Wherever God bestow his spiritual blessings, there is his vineyard. The Church, as it is a spot of high moral culture, and enriched by the choicest spiritual favors, receives the title of vineyard. Where God bestows the greatest care, either by the labors of his faithful servants, or by the heavenly influence of his spirit, there is his vineyard. Though the word in its spiritual application is usually confined to the church; yet it is often more extended and applies to that community, where the means of grace, in their purity, are enjoyed. The community of Israel, comprehending saints and sinners, was anciently, up to the advent of Christ, the vineyard of the Lord, because t(they were committed the oracles of God, and they were selected from the other nations of the earth, to enjoy the means of salvation. In the chapter before us, containing the text, God reminds Israel, what he had done...
