Excerpt: .those she loves too dearly to leave, she would wrap herself up in religion, and become a regular saint. Evan smiled, but said nothing. I can t bear you to laugh at me, cried Bell; and when you smile like that without speaking, you make me feel quite angry. I m very sorry for it, and will take care not to offend again; but just to show what I mean, I ll make a sketch of what Ellie would look like after ten years life Shall I call her? in a cell. No, I can remember her face well enough for what I want; I shall only do it in charcoal. Shall I sit any longer? No, I have done as much as I can manage for this morning, and I must be alone when I do this sketch. Bell lingered a minute,...
