Not illustrated. 1841 Excerpt: . . . and as spies and traitors to the crown; which was proven by the emperors Maximilian and Albert, who declared them to be such in public edicts; a fact easy to be believed, when we consider that they enter with ease into the enemies country, and know the languages of all nations. This statement is incorrect. f The Torlaquis, (idle vagabonds,) Hadgies, (saints,) and Dervishes, (mendicant friars,) of the East, are Gypsies neither by origin nor habits, but are in general people who support themselves in idleness by practising upon the credulity and superstition of the Moslems. Secondly, because they are idle vagabond people, who are in no respect useful to the kingdom; without commerce, occupation, or trade of any description; and if they have any it is making pick-locks and pothooks for appearance sake, being wasps, who only live by sucking and impoverishing...
