Reviews

A whole new eBook with a brand new point of view. It is definitely simplistic but shocks in the 50 percent of the publication. I am just pleased to explain how this is the greatest ebook i have read during my very own daily life and could be he best ebook for possibly.

Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Educational Enquiry, North Stonington, May 1916 This report was written by Mr G C Swift an agent of the state board of education. It is based on many visits to the schools conferences with the committee and reports of the school committee to the state board of education The inspector read chapter v of this report to two of the three members of the North Stonington town school committee in March 1916 A summary of the necessary repairs was submitted to the committee in June State supervision was withdrawn in August. A typewritten copy of the whole report was mailed to each member of the committee on September 20th The last of September the following postal was sent to each voter in the town The state board of education has withdrawn supervision from North Stonington because the town failed to do its share for the children It failed 1 to pay wages sufficient to secure good teachers 2 to provide good textbooks 3 to purchase good reading matter 4 to equip its schools 5 to buy necessary apparatus 6 to maintain its schoolhouses and privies in good repair Correspondence invited Chas D Hine Secretary G C Swift Inspector The inspector attended the town meeting the following week and by request explained to the voters the meaning of the postcard The town meeting voted an increase in the tax for schools from four to six mills and elected a new school committee. The voice of the people was unmistakably for better schools and for the restoration of supervision Upon application of the town school committee supervision was restored in October The town is improving its buildings...
