Ignition Books. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 350 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.9in. Los Angeles is no stranger to glamour, celebrity . . . and murder. When Susan Kaplan moves to L. A. to become a TV writer, shes thrilled to be hired as a writers assistant on the well-regarded but low-rated TV series Babbitt and Brooks. The last thing she expects, however, is that shed find herself working for the beautiful yet seriously neurotic Rebecca Saunders, the shows less-than-competent associate producer who may or may not have gotten the job by sleeping with Babbitt and Brooks demanding creator and executive producer, Ray Goldfarb. And Susan definitely doesnt expect to find murdered Rebeccas body in her office at the studio early one morning. When the police learn that Rebecca torpedoed Susans writing career shortly before her death, Susan becomes their number one suspect. Determined to prove her innocence and find the murderer, Susan discovers that all her colleagues have secrets they would kill to protect. From producers to writers to stars, it seems that the hopes and dreams of nearly everyone associated with the show were being threatened by Rebecca. Despite the danger to her own life, Susan remains determined to find Rebeccas killer and in the process unmasks the dirty little secrets behind the making of a primetime television series. She learns that real life behind the camera is far more dramatic than the fictional one in front of it. Lisa Seidman draws on her thirty years of experience as a successful television writer to take the reader behind the scenes and show how the struggle to achieve high ratings truly can lead to murder. Lisa Seidman weaves together vivid characters, delightful mystery, and the wry wit of a true TV insider to create a delicious tale of...
