Excerpt: . . . 11 barrel and we kind of fell off the wagon, started driving high consumption vehicles. No more Vegas and Pintos and the Gremlins that were the rage back in the 1970s. I think it is incumbent upon government to make the decisions to foresee the inevitable swing back to high price of oil and we have failed to do that. I think it is a balance between production and consumption. Over and over again we have tried to address CAFE standards and the SUV loophole, an SUV loophole left over from American Motors and trying to help them with their Wagoneer which is the only vehicle they were selling. We forged that loophole and never addressed it since. Thus our consumption is very high and now we have to look at production. I think if we are not going to look...
