Before us spread the shining waters of the great lake, a strange and memorable scene. High mountains tower above them to the east and west, high precipitous summits of gray or bare white limestone; the heights of Abarim, the green ridges of Gilead, the dark bulk of the Mountain of the Temptation. To the right is the supposed locality of the Cities of the Plain: to the left lie the ruins of Gilgal and of Jericho. In front extends a long narrow belt of sand and ashes; and from the northward, through its widening valley, rushes the Descender, sinking into quiescence as its turbid waters reach their final basin. Not a cloud breaks...
